EXPERIENCE OVERVIEW

4-Day Mount Meru Trek

Tanzania's second-highest peak (4,566m) and the perfect warm-up for Kilimanjaro. Walk through forests with buffalo and giraffes, then summit with stunning Kilimanjaro views.

Mount Meru — Africa's Hidden Gem

Mount Meru (4,566m) is Tanzania's second-highest mountain and one of East Africa's most rewarding treks. Located within Arusha National Park, the trek combines wildlife viewing with high-altitude climbing — something Kilimanjaro doesn't offer. You may encounter buffalo, giraffes, colobus monkeys, and elephants on the lower slopes.

Perfect Kilimanjaro Preparation

Many climbers use Mount Meru as acclimatization before attempting Kilimanjaro. The summit at 4,566m provides excellent altitude training, and the trek itself is technically more demanding with a dramatic summit ridge that rivals any mountain experience in East Africa.
